FACTS

A. Plaintiff and Its Copyrighted Works and Right of Publicity

7. Plaintiff is a media content and advertising company, renowned for its expansive social media presence and impact on contemporary pop-culture.

8. Plaintiff was founded in 2010 with the launch of Plaintiff's "FKJerry" social media account by company founder Elliot Tebele ("FJerry Social Media Account"). The FJerry Social Media Account shared viral meme content and quickly drew a strong cult following.

9. Since those early days, the FJerry Social Media Account has grown in popularity and recognition, and currently has over 16.7 million followers. This account has been recognized in publications, such as Forbes, as one of the Internet's top grossing influencer accounts.

10. In addition to the FJerry Social Media Account, Plaintiff has also created other prominent social media properties including Dudewithsign, Dudettewithsign, Beigecardigan, and others. Combined, these accounts bring the Plaintiff's total follower count to over 30 million users.

11. As result of its tremendous success and recognition, Plaintiff is today one of the most prominent social media and meme companies. Because of its popularity and traffic, Plaintiff has been contracted by many major brands to support and promote a variety of brands and their marketing campaigns, including: Anheuser-Busch, Warner Bros, and Universal, to name a few.

12. Among the most popular and commercially successful of Plaintiff's properties are the DudeWithSign social media account ("DudeWithSign Account"), which launched in 2019 and the DudetteWith Sign social media account ("DudetteWithSign Account").

13. The DudeWithSign Account features a unique creative direction led by Seth Phillips ("Phillips"), a/k/a the "dude with a sign" and the DudetteWithSign Account is led by Nisarah Lewis ("Lewis").

14. Phillips and Lewis, acting as a man and a woman holding cardboard signs protest everyday annoyances throughout New York City, and, on occasion, other parts of the world.

15. For example, Phillips' first viral post was "Stop replying all to companywide emails."

16. Since that time, the internet has loved Phillips' and Lewis' relatable takes and observations on everyday social situations. Posts on these social media accounts regularly solicit hundreds of thousands (if not millions) of "likes," thousands of comments, and millions of user impressions.

17. The DudeWithSign Account has been featured in Forbes, Men's Journal, Yahoo! and US Weekly.

18. Some examples of popular postings in the DudeWithSign Account are pictured below:

19. The DudeWithSign account also caught the attention of the White House, with one viral post featuring Mr. Phillips and President Joe Biden holding up cardboard signs promoting COVID vaccinations:

20. The DudeWithSign Account has grown to 8 million followers and the DudetteWithSign Account has over 700,000 followers.

21. Given their wide popularity and tremendous following, the DudeWithSign Account and DudetteWithSign Account have become valuable commercial properties for Plaintiff.

22. Plaintiff has entered into license agreements with several companies for use of its intellectual property rights connected to the DudeWithSign Account and DudetteWithSign Account. These license agreements alone have generated substantial revenue for Plaintiff.

23. Given their celebrity and influence, Phillips and Lewis are highly sought after by companies hoping to secure their endorsement of their products, and those companies are willing to pay significant sums to engage Phillips and/or Lewis to help promote their brands.

24. Plaintiff, Phillips and Lewis have selectively endorsed, and continue to selectively endorse, various products and services.

25. Phillips' and Lewis' name, image, likeness, and persona have come to be associated in the minds of the consuming public with products and services that Plaintiff, Phillips and Lewis endorse.

26. Plaintiff is the exclusive licensee of all relevant rights to Phillips' and Lewis' right of publicity.

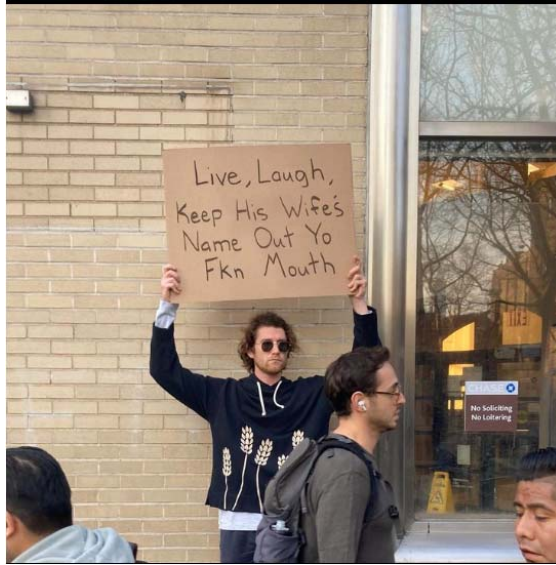

27. Plaintiff, Phillips and Lewis maintain strict control over the manner in which Phillips' and Lewis' image, likeness, and persona are used.

28. Plaintiff, Phillips and Lewis exercise careful consideration in selecting and approving products and services that they will permit to license or use Phillips' or Lewis' image, likeness, or persona.

29. Plaintiff's employees Guy Blelloch and Maya Sasson ("Employees") created, as part of and within the scope of their employment with Plaintiff, the photographs that comprise the Copyrighted Works on or around March 28, 2022 for the DudeWithSign image and July 28, 2022 for the DudetteWithSign image. Because the Copyrighted Works are works made for hire within the scope of Employees' employment with Plaintiff, Plaintiff owns any and all copyright rights in the Copyrighted Works.

30. An image of the DudeWithSign image of Copyrighted Works, which relates to the well-publicized event at the Oscars involving actor Will Smith and comedian Chris Rock, is depicted below:

31. An image of the DudetteWithSign image of Copyrighted Works is depicted below:

32. The Copyrighted Works are wholly original, and Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of all right, title, and interest, including all rights under copyright, in the Copyrighted Works.

33. Plaintiff is the owner of valid and subsisting United States Copyright Registration No VA 2-319-049 for the Copyrighted Works, issued by the United States Copyright Office with an Effective Date of Registration of September 15, 2022. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the registration certificate for the Copyrighted Works.

34. Plaintiff has published the Copyrighted Works by displaying same on the DudeWithSign Account and DudetteWithSign Account.

35. The Copyrighted Works are of significant value to Plaintiff.

B. Defendant's Infringing Conduct

37. Defendant published, printed, publicly displayed images (the "Infringing Works"), which are substantially similar to and/or derivative works based on, the Copyrighted Works.

38. On information and belief, the Infringing Works have been made available to the public by Defendant via, at least, Instagram. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a copy of the Infringing Works.

39. On information and belief, Defendant obtained physical possession of or otherwise viewed Plaintiff's Copyrighted Works, and intentionally copied and made derivative works of the Copyrighted Works to create the Infringing Works.

40. That Defendant copied the Copyrighted Works when it created the Infringing Work is evidenced by the striking similarities between the Copyrighted Works and the Infringing Works, which cannot possibly be explained other than as a result of copying and Defendant's access to the Copyrighted Works as a result of the widespread dissemination of the Copyrighted Works in the United States and the numerous and substantial similarities between the parties' works.

41. Defendant copied the Copyrighted Works without Plaintiff's authorization, consent, or knowledge, and without any remuneration to Plaintiff.

42. Defendant did not seek, and pay, for a license to use the Copyrighted Works.

43. After Defendant copied the Copyrighted Works to create the Infringing Works, it exploited the Infringing Works to promote its own products and increase its own sales, thereby securing a financial windfall for the unauthorized use of Plaintiff's property and rights.

44. On information and belief, the Defendant paid Instagram for use of Instagram's premium "Boost" service for the Infringing Works which was intended to increase the viewership of the Infringing Works.

45. As a result of Defendant's actions described above, Plaintiff has been directly damaged, and is continuing to be damaged, by the unauthorized reproduction, distribution, and public display of the Infringing Works. Defendant has never accounted to or otherwise paid Plaintiff for its use of the Copyrighted Works.

46. Defendant's acts are causing, and unless restrained, will continue to cause damage and immediate irreparable harm to Plaintiff for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

47. Hoping to benefit from Phillips' and Lewis' celebrity and influence, Defendant has used Phillips' and Lewis' image, likeness, and persona to promote Defendant's business without Phillips', Lewis' or Plaintiff's consent, and specifically to promote Defendant's product, supplement products.

48. Defendant's unauthorized use of Phillips' and Lewis' image, likeness, and persona to promote Defendant and its products are blatant and willful violations of Phillips', Lewis' and Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights of publicity.

49. By this action, Plaintiff seeks permanent injunctive relief, an award of compensatory and treble damages, the disgorgement of Defendant's ill-gotten profits, and an award of punitive damages to deter Defendant from future violations of Plaintiff's, Phillips' and Lewis' personal and intellectual property rights.

52. Through Defendant's conduct alleged herein, including Defendant's reproduction, distribution and public display of the Infringing Works, which is copied from, derivative of, and substantially similar to Plaintiff's Copyrighted Works, without Plaintiff's permission, Defendant has directly infringed Plaintiff's exclusive rights in the Copyrighted Works in violation of Section 501 of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501.

53. On information and belief, Defendant's infringing conduct alleged herein was and continues to be willful and with full knowledge of Plaintiff's rights in the Copyrighted Works, and has enabled Defendant illegally to obtain profit therefrom.

56. Plaintiff further is entitled to its attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

57. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendant's infringing conduct alleged herein, Plaintiff has sustained and will continue to sustain substantial, immediate, and irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law.
